12a/c. Japanese Woven Bird Tray: The delicate beauty of this tray will enhance any setting in any room of your already beautiful home! Its woven texture coupled with the exquisite and typical Asian subject of a bird will hang beautifully on a wall in your home. When you remove the hanger on the back it could be used as a serving tray or a decorative piece of art.

Donor: Jane Murphy

Value: $50

Minimum Bid: $25

13a/c. Saratoga Steamer Trunk: This is the perfect decorating accessory and a unique one besides. This antique steamer trunk is covered in metal and is large in size. Historically, these large fancy top trunks were popular in the 1870's and used by the very wealthy when visiting the spas and racetrack at Saratoga Springs, New York. The round top on this trunk meant that the trunk itself was packed on top of the baggage case so as not to be damaged. Usually covered in leather or metal with fancy trim, these trunks are a "find" today for the discriminating buyer.

Donor: Jane and Jeff O'Neill

Value: $300

Minimum Bid: $100

MULTIPLE ITEM AUCTION/DUTCH AUCTION

SPORTSWEAR FOR MEN

Various styles, sizes and colors of men's sportswear will be grouped together in a Dutch Auction or Multiple Item Auction. This means that the donor is offering multiple, identical or similar items for sale. Unlike a regular auction, Multiple Item Auctions can have many winners.

In a Multiple Item Auction your bid indicates the price you are willing to pay per item. The highest bidder may choose as many items as he wants and pays his bid price for EACH item. If there are any items left, the second highest bidder may choose as many as he wants and also pays his bid price for EACH item. This continues down the bid list until all the items are gone or no bidders are left.
